

Youth Christmas Program

Our youth presented their Christmas play:
“Josh and Jared’s Angel Swing” on 3 January 2010

This years Christmas Program made you laugh, cry, and focused on the reason for the season. The play is one the Youth performed before many years ago but with a few changes.

The name of the play was: “Josh and Jared’s Angel Swing”, all of the names in the play have been changed to the names of the youth in the play.

Rebekah was an uptight high school girl who has just inherited the honor of directing the Sunday School Program.

Daniel was her reluctant helper along with Ali and Kate.

Josh and Jared are mischievous friends that are rarely serious about anything and give Rebekah a difficult time.

There are many other youth and children in the play including a brief interaction with an audience member.

Two of the children (Caroline Frum and Josie Raines sang great solos, supported by many different groups of children singing traditional Christmas Hymns.
